Are you interested in history, gardens, education, music, or the preservation of an extraordinary house?

If so, volunteering at Fairmount Park’s HISTORIC LAUREL HILL MANSION (www.laurelhillmansion.org) provides you with the opportunity of participating in one or more programs including Love Your Park, Constitution Day, Candlelight Concerts, the Spring Tea, Cider Fest, and Holiday House Tours.

Volunteers participate on an ad-hoc basis with no minimum time commitment. The duration of volunteer shifts is dependent on the specific event but usually is between 2-5 hours long.

Volunteers will receive emails about the upcoming events and options. If interested and/or to get more information, please contact Karen F. Phinney, President of Women for Greater Philadelphia, the Steward of Laurel Hill Mansion, at kphinney@laurelhillmansion.org or 215-554-2003

HISTORIC LAUREL HILL MANSION is a Blue Star Museum and is located at 7201 N. Randolph Drive, Philadelphia, PA. 19121. Phone 215-235-1776
